How delight full to find you here, you're interested in alph art. Well i'd never have tought it possible That simple fisherman,without any education,should be mad about art it's fantastic

It proves that your art so simple and at the same time so rich,so noble so basic,can reach the whole world.From the most untouch to the most,the most . well people like us .

ah alph art,a genuine return to the sources,to the caves of castamura..er,of lascaux .
well,it's a nutshell,is the art of our time in it we return to the origin of civilisation, don't we?. The wheel,fire, the hard boiled eeg .

Yes, i came to europe to do a little shopping i offered to buy windsor castle from the British goverment so i can put it up outside wadesdah. but the British goverment refused, despite their financial difficulties. One wonders why?

The same brush-of in france when i proposed to buy versailles and the eiffel tower Which i have converted to a derrick. Everyone i was met with incomprohension i was just about to offer a considerable sum for refinery they built recently in paris and used as museum

You mean beaubourg centre, exelency.

I know, i know that's the official story they gave to me but i can tell you, it's my line and i know what i'm talking about, it is a refinerry turned into museum and that's that! Now i'm decided to build my own now. museum look like a refinery on the outside, just to keep up with the fashion, but.

Abdullah, my darling sugar candy duckling Aren't you ashamed of frightening the gentleman.

Don't scold him, excellency. Think nothing of it. Just little banger. Let's proceed with the interview

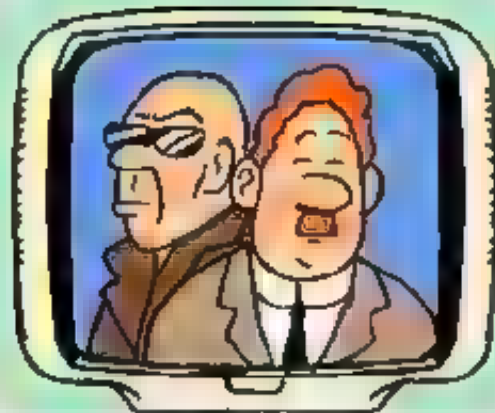

Well, as i was saying i'm going to build a museum of art at Wadesdah. I - want to make khemed into modern country resolutely moving into the future. The plans already drawn up.

And we stay with the world of art to report that Jacques monastir, the well known expert has dissapear in dramatic circumstances. A experienced yachts man, he left at small port at sardinia three day ago.

His yacht emerald has been found empty, drifting of the corsican coast of a jaccio near the sangunaires island A lenght of rope was attached to the boat. Jacques monastir was known worldwi de and most of great muse ums called upon his exper tise

it's seem probable that Mr Monastir decided to go for swim and for safety, attached himself to the boat by a line. Then disaster must have struck.

FOURCART DIES

Art world mourns again

Belgium, Yesterday, Jacques Monastir disappeared off Ajaccio near the Sanguinaires island. Today, the renowned expert Henry Fourcart met his end in an accident. his car skidded on a bend, plunged into a dry riverbed and burst into flames. the doomed driver perished in the blaze all very mysterious he had something to tell me and he die,

too like he's unhappy
colleague

alas, yes poor man
a chapter of acci dent, eh

NAMI D'APRÈS HERGÉ

but, what they weren't an accident, eh oh, you always see a mystery in everywhere

yes you probably right Captain but event so, tomorrow i shall make me enquiries

well my friend, we're going to pour liquid polyester over you, you'll become an expansion signed by César and then authenticated by a well known expert.

Then it will be sold, perhaps to museum or perhaps a rich collector. You should be glad your corpse will be displayed in museum.

And no one will ever suspect that the work which could be entitled reporter constitutes the last resting place of young Tintin. Think about that, my dear friend. Tomorrow Ramonash will be here and will turn into a cesar...hahaha.
